

Cumberland Plain Landcare and Bushcare Support Program

Helping Landcare and Bushcare volunteers in western Sydney restore Endangered Ecological Communities, the bushland in Sydney most at risk...

CALENDAR OF EVENTS (JAN-JUN 2017)

19th March, 2017

Sunday – River Road, Leonay (Penrith City Council).

Informal training: Wildlife in western Sydney – Rivers. Lunch provided.

1st April, 2017

Saturday – South Creek, Orchard Hills (Penrith City Council).

Informal training: Wildlife in western Sydney – Creeks. Lunch provided.

8th and 9th April, 2017

Saturday – Wallaroo, Mulgoa (Cumberland Land Conservancy).

Informal training: Wildlife in western Sydney – large bushland remnants. Campout with all catering included (incl lunch and breakfast). Night time entertainment – star gazing and astronomy. BYO camping gear.

Sunday – School House Creek, Regentville (Penrith City Council).

Informal training: Wildlife in western Sydney – backyards. Lunch provided.

13th and 14th May, 2017

Saturday – Mitchell Park, Cattai (National Parks and Wildlife Service).

Informal training: Wildlife in the Cattai catchment. Campout with all catering included (incl lunch and breakfast). Night time entertainment – spotlighting for Greater Gliders and the Nankeen night Heron. BYO camping gear.

Sunday – Scheyville National Park (National Parks and Wildlife Service).

Informal training: Vegetation of the Cumberland Plain Woodland. Lunch provided.

17th June, 2017

Saturday – Wianamatta Regional Park (National Parks and Wildlife Service).

Informal training: The old ADI site; what it looks like today. Lunch provided.

Transport: available for all events.

BYO: Camping Gear

Families: Welcome!

Tickets: <http://bit.ly/2kOx4ut>

This Program is supported by Local Land Services with funding from the Australian Government

All enquiries to Local Landcare Coordinator,

Xuela Sledge | ☎ 02 4724 2146

✉ xuela.sledge@greatersydneylandcare.org

